ORDER

On October 23, 2020, the parties in the above-captioned case filed a joint status report and motion to continue the stay of proceedings. They note that the insurers in Maine Community Health Options v. United States, Fed Cir. No. 19-2102, and Community Health Choice, Inc. v. United States, Fed. Cir. No. 19-1633, filed petitions for rehearing en banc with the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit and that a petition for a writ of certiorari may ultimately be filed with the United States Supreme Court. Thus, they request that the stay in this case be continued "until 30 days after the Federal Circuit's resolution of the pending petitions for rehearing en banc, or until 30 days after the Supreme Court's final resolution of any petition for a writ of certiorari, whichever is later." The court GRANTS the parties' motion and CONTINUES the stay of proceedings until thirty days after the appeals process has concluded. By the end of that thirty-day period, the parties shall file a joint status report proposing a schedule for further proceedings.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
