STAY ORDER

On October 23, 2018, the parties in the above-captioned matter filed a joint status report and request to continue the stay of proceedings in this matter for an additional 60 days (docket entry no. 16). The parties represent that the stay will allow plaintiffs time to sufficiently consider the implications of the Federal Circuit’s rulings in the Land of Lincoln Mut. Health Ins. Co. v. United States, No. 17-1224, 2018 WL 2975999 (Fed. Cir. June 14, 2018), and Moda Health Plan, Inc. v. United States, No. 17-1994, 2018 WL 2976278 (Fed. Cir. June 14, 2018), matters.

In light of the foregoing, and for good cause shown, the Court GRANTS the parties’ joint request to continue the stay of proceedings in this matter and STAYS proceedings in this matter for a period of 60 days. On or before December 24, 2018, the parties shall FILE a joint status report indicating their respective views on how this matter should proceed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
