RESOLUTION

Expressing the sense of the House of Representatives that protections for individuals with pre-existing conditions should be retained in law regardless of further amendments to, or the repeal of, the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act.

Whereas pre-existing conditions can affect any individual regardless of race, gender, age, social class, or creed;

Whereas health insurance coverage should not discriminate against those with pre-existing conditions;

Whereas pre-existing condition protections have long been supported in a bipartisan manner; and

Whereas protections for pre-existing conditions should be included in any reform of our Nation's health care system: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved, That it is the sense of the House of Rep-
2 resentatives that Congress should—

3 (1) support protections in law for individuals
4 with pre-existing conditions; and

5 (2) in the case of a court ruling that would
6 hinder such protections, act swiftly to reinstate such
7 protections for such individuals.
