ORDER

On March 28, 2019, the parties filed a joint status report, pursuant to the court’s order of March 14, 2019. See ECF No. 21. Therein, the parties state that “[i]n light of the multiple cases currently on appeal at the Federal Circuit dealing with cost-sharing reduction payment claims, and for the reasons noted by the Court in its March 14 order, the parties respectfully request that the court stay the proceedings in this matter.” Id. at 1. In that regard, the parties propose to file a “joint status report within 30 days of the final disposition (including petitions for writ of certiorari to the Supreme Court, if any) of Sanford Health Plan v. United States[, Case No. 18-136C] (Fed. Cir. No. 19-1290) and the cases consolidated with Sanford for purposes of appeal before the Federal Circuit.” Id.

For good cause shown, the clerk’s office is directed to STAY this matter until further order of the court. Within thirty days of the issuance of a decision in one of the Federal Circuit appeals cited above, the parties are directed to FILE a joint status report informing the court of the parties' position on the current stay and proposing an agreed-upon schedule for further proceedings in this matter, if appropriate.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
