ORDER

On May 27, 2020, the parties filed a joint status report. Pursuant to the representations, the parties shall file a joint status report within 45 days from the date of this order. In the event the Plaintiff wishes to refine or update its claim for damages, whether through formal amendment of its complaint or through less formal means, Plaintiff shall do so within 45 days as well. The Defendant's response is stayed until after the joint status report is due. The Court will set the Defendant's response time, if necessary, after the joint status report is filed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
