(attach additional pages if necessary)

At the Governor's request, the Washington Attorney General's Office has implemented furloughs due to severe state budget impacts caused by the COVID-19 pandemic. The lead attorneys in this matter, Jeffrey Sprung and Lauryn Fraas, and their professional staff, are working reduced hours while managing full workloads. A 90-day extension of time is needed to accommodate the disruption to work schedules caused by the furloughs,

ATTACHMENT A

At the Governor's request, the Washington Attorney General's Office has implemented furloughs due to severe state budget impacts caused by the COVID-19 pandemic. The lead attorneys in this matter, Jeffrey Sprung and Lauryn Fraas, and their professional staff, are working reduced hours while managing full workloads. A 90-day extension of time is needed to accommodate the disruption to work schedules caused by the furloughs, as well as personal and professional challenges presented by working during the COVID-19 pandemic, including increased caregiving responsibilities for the lead attorneys in this matter.
