

In the United States Court of Federal Claims

No. 20-757C
(Filed: August 13, 2020)

*****
MVP HEALTH PLAN, INC., *
*
Plaintiff, *
*
v. *
*
THE UNITED STATES, *
*
Defendant. *
*****

ORDER

On August 12, 2020, the parties in the above-captioned case filed a Stipulation for Entry of Judgment (“Stipulation”) “[t]o resolve the risk corridors claims of Plaintiff MVP Health Plan, Inc. . . . and to permit the entry of final judgment on those claims . . . .” In accordance with the Stipulation, the court directs the clerk to enter judgment in favor of plaintiff in the amount of $10,807,749.98 for Count I of the complaint and to dismiss Count II and Count III of the complaint with prejudice.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

s/ Margaret M. Sweeney
MARGARET M. SWEENEY
Chief Judge