JOINT STATUS REPORT AND MOTION TO CONTINUE STAY

Pursuant to this Court’s October 10, 2019 Order (ECF No. 6), the parties submit this joint status report regarding the status of Sanford Health Plan v. United States, No. 19-1290 (Fed. Cir.) (Sanford) (consolidated with Montana Health CO-OP v. United States, No. 19-1302 (Fed. Cir.)). On January 9, 2020, oral argument was held in those consolidated appeals and the companion cases, Community Health Choice, Inc. v. United States, No. 19-1633, and Maine Cmty. Health Options v. United States, No. 19-2102. On May 19, 2020, pursuant to a Federal Circuit order, the parties filed supplemental briefs in the consolidated appeals, addressing the impact of the Supreme Court’s decision in Maine Community Health Options v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1308 (2020). On August 14, the Federal Circuit issued decisions in the consolidated appeals.

Although the Federal Circuit has issued rulings in the consolidated CSR appeals, it has not yet issued mandates in those appeals. Because any party to those appeals may file a petition for rehearing and/or rehearing en banc, Fed. Cir. R. 35, 40, or a petition for a writ of certiorari, there may be further proceedings in those appeals that will impact all 23 of the CSR cases pending in this Court that raise CSR claims, including this one.

In order to conserve judicial and party resources, the parties respectfully request that the Court stay this case for 39 days, to and including Friday, October 23, 2020, at which point the parties will submit a joint status report proposing further proceedings. A 39-day stay will provide the Court and the parties with clarity about the posture of the consolidated CSR appeals and their impact on this case. See UnionBanCal Corp. v. United States, 93 Fed. Cl. 166, 167 (2010) (“The orderly course of justice and judicial economy is served when granting a stay simplifies the ‘issues, proof, and questions of law which could be expected to result from a stay.’”) (quoting CMAX, Inc. v. United States, 300 F.2d 265, 268 (9th Cir. 1962)). Indeed, absent a stay in this case and in the other pending cases raising CSR claims, the Court will be forced to devote substantial resources to coordinating damages proceedings in nearly two dozen pending cases, when the underlying issues controlling those proceedings still may be subject to further review. The Court has already extended existing stays in other CSR cases until October 23. See, e.g., Harvard Pilgrim et al. v. United States No. 18-1820 (Fed. Cl.) at ECF No. 22 (Aug. 24, 2020); Harvard Pilgrim et al. v. United States No. 20-578 (Fed. Cl.) at ECF No. 12 (Aug. 24, 2020); Sanford Health Plan v. United States No. 20-746 (Fed. Cl.) at ECF No. 9 (Aug. 25, 2020); Guidewell Mutual Holding, Corp. v. United States No. 18-1791 (Fed. Cl.) at ECF No. 24 (Aug. 28, 2020).

CONCLUSION

For these reasons, we respectfully request that the Court stay this case for 39 days, to and including October 23, 2020, at which point the parties will submit a joint status report proposing further proceedings in this case.

Respectfully submitted,
