11 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
 12 EASTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
 13 AT SPOKANE

14 STATE OF WASHINGTON, et al.,

15 Plaintiffs,

16 v.

17 UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF
 18 HOMELAND SECURITY, et al.,

19 Defendants

No. 4:19-cv-5210-RMP

REPORT PURSUANT TO MAY 13,
 2020 ORDER

1 Defendants respectfully submit this report pursuant to the Court’s May 13, 2020
2 Order Denying in Part and Granting in Part Defendants’ Motion to Stay Discovery Order
3 re: Privilege Log (“Order”). ECF No. 219. The Court ordered Defendants to produce a
4 privilege log pertaining to Defendants’ administrative record on a rolling basis starting 5 on June 12, 2020. Id. at 6. The Court further ordered Defendants to make reports to the 6 Court and Plaintiffs every other Friday, on their progress toward completion of the 7 privilege log. Id.

8 Notifying Custodians of Obligation to Preserve Documents

9 First, the Court ordered Defendants to report on their progress in “notifying 10 potential custodians of their obligation to preserve potentially relevant documents, even 11 if assertedly privileged[.]” Order at 6. As discussed in Defendants’ June 12, 2020 report,
12 Defendants have notified all potential custodians of their obligation to preserve
13 potentially relevant documents, even if assertedly privileged.

14 Segregating Privileged Documents for Review

15 Second, the Court ordered Defendants to report on their progress in “segregating
16 all assertedly privileged documents for review.” Order at 6.

17 As reported previously, Defendants believe they have collected all necessary
18 emails and other electronic documents for the privilege review. Although electronic 19 records are expected to constitute the vast majority of documents subject to the Court’s
20 Order, it is possible that there could be paper documents that do not also exist in electronic 21 form. At this time, due to the COVID-19 crisis and the telework status of most agency
22 personnel, Defendants cannot determine whether there are any paper documents that will

1 need to be collected, as those documents are physically located in agency offices and are
2 therefore currently inaccessible.

3 Logging Privileged Documents

4 Third, the Court ordered Defendants to report on their progress in logging
5 privileged documents pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(5)(A). Order at 6. As of 6 November 13, 2020, 49,439 documents have been batched for review in the DOJ
7 document review platform.¹ 49,362 (i.e., 99.8%) of those documents have undergone an 8 initial review. 6,132 of the documents require final review by agency counsel and, as 9 necessary, by counsel at the Department of Justice. The documents awaiting final level
10 review include many documents that contain third party equities and which Defendants 11 expect to include in future installments of the privilege log after consulting with the 12 appropriate third parties. Similarly, some of the documents that underwent final review
13 since the last status report contain third party equities and require consultation with third 14 parties. 266 documents are currently listed on the privilege log.

15
16 Dated: November 13, 2020

Respectfully submitted,

17 JEFFREY BOSSERT CLARK
Acting Assistant Attorney General

18 WILLIAM D. HYSLOP
19 United States Attorney

20
21 ¹ Defendants previously reported that 50,152 documents had been batched for review.
22 Defendants have since determined that that count included some documents already contained in the administrative record and which do not need to be reviewed for the privilege log.
