JOINT MOTION TO REMOVE CONSOLIDATED APPEALS FROM THE ORAL ARGUMENT CALENDAR AND PLACE APPEALS IN ABEYANCE

Pursuant to Ninth Circuit Rule 27-1, all parties to these consolidated appeals jointly move to remove the appeals from the Court's oral argument calendar and place them in abeyance while new leadership at the U.S. Department of Health & Human Services (HHS) evaluates the issues the cases present. Oral argument is currently scheduled for Monday, February 8, 2021.

1. These consolidated appeals concern the validity of a final rule that HHS promulgated in 2019. The rule, entitled Protecting Statutory Conscience Rights in Health Care, 84 Fed. Reg. 23,170 (May 21, 2019), implicates various federal statutes that protect individuals and other entities with religious or moral objections to providing certain health-care-related services in connection with government-provided or government-funded health care programs. In these appeals, the federal government sought review of decisions in which two district courts—one in the Eastern District of Washington and one in the Northern District of California—vacated the rule.

2. The consolidated appeals are fully briefed, and the Court has scheduled oral argument for Monday, February 8, 2021.

3. New leadership at HHS is currently in the process of arriving at the agency and plans to reassess the issues that these cases present. All parties agree that it would conserve the resources of the Court and the parties to remove the consolidated appeals from the Court's argument calendar and place the appeals in abeyance while HHS undertakes this reassessment. New leadership began arriving at HHS and the U.S. Department of Justice only 19 days before the scheduled oral argument and will need additional time to review the rule in question and the multiple legal issues that are involved in these consolidated appeals; consult with all interested federal agencies and offices; and determine the appropriate course going forward. Given the recent change of administration and the complexity and importance of the issues presented by the rule and in these appeals, these exceptional circumstances support postponing the oral argument and holding the consolidated appeals in abeyance. See 9th Cir. R. 34-2 (“No change of the day or place assigned for hearing will be made except by order of the Court for good cause. Only under exceptional circumstances will the Court grant a request to vacate a setting within 14 days of the date set.”).

The parties propose to file status reports with the Court within 60 days of the order placing the appeals in abeyance.

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, the parties jointly request that the Court remove these consolidated appeals from the oral argument calendar for Monday, February 8, 2021, and place the appeals in abeyance.
