

In the United States Court of Federal Claims

_____	)
HIGHMARK, INC., et al. ,	)
	)
Plaintiffs,	)
	)	No. 20-1686C
v.	)
	)	Filed June 14, 2021
THE UNITED STATES,	)
	)
Defendant.	)
	)
_____	)

STAY ORDER

On June 14, 2021, the parties filed a joint status report requesting that the Court continue the stay of proceedings in the above-captioned matter until 30 days after the United States Supreme Court resolves of all petitions for writ of certiorari pertaining to the cost-sharing reduction (“CSR”) appeals (ECF No. 8). In the joint status report, the parties state that the following petitions for writ of certiorari are currently pending before the Supreme Court: (1) a joint petition filed the by plaintiffs in Community Health Choice, Inc. v. United States and Maine Community Health Options v. United States, No. 20-1162, as well as a cross-petition filed by the government in those matters, and (2) a petition filed by the plaintiffs in Common Ground Health Cooperative v. United States, No. 20-1200, as well as a cross-petition filed by the government in that matter. Id. at 1-2. The parties further state that the resolution of these petitions will directly affect future proceedings in this matter. Id. at 2. And so, the parties request that the Court continue the stay of proceedings and that they be permitted to file another joint status report within 30 days of the Supreme Court’s resolution of all pending petitions for writ of certiorari pertaining to the CSR appeals. Id. at 2.

In light of the foregoing, and for good cause shown, the Court continues the STAY of proceedings in this matter. The parties shall FILE a joint status report updating the Court on the status of the CSR appeals and proposing further proceedings within 30 days of the Supreme Court's resolution of all pending petitions for writ of certiorari pertaining to the CSR appeals.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

s/ Lydia Kay Griggsby
LYDIA KAY GRIGGSBY
Judge