Before LOURIE, WALLACH, and HUGHES, Circuit Judges.
WALLACH, Circuit Judge.

O R D E R

On November 19, 2019, the United States Court of Federal Claims entered partial final judgment under Rule 54(b) of the Rules of the United States Court of Federal Claims for damages for the appellee's cost share reduction claims for years 2017 and 2018, and the United States appealed. The parties now jointly move for a limited remand to allow the United States to “stipulate to liability and damages” for the 2017 claims and the Court of Federal Claims “to enter partial final judgment” on those claims. Mot. at 1. The parties further request this court otherwise continue the stay of this appeal for another 60 days while the parties continue to pursue “resolution efforts.” Id. at 2.

Upon consideration thereof,

IT IS ORDERED THAT:

(1) The motion is granted to the extent that the case is remanded for limited proceedings consistent with this order and the parties’ agreement. This court retains jurisdiction over this appeal.

(2) The briefing schedule remains stayed. The parties are directed to file a status report every 60 days from the date of filing of this order.
