Re: No. 22-3272, AZ, et al v. Joseph Biden, et al

Dear Counsel:

A video argument on defendants' motion for stay pending appeal has been set for 10:00 a.m. (Eastern Time) on Thursday, April 7, 2022 before a three-judge panel of the Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals. You must be available for argument from 9:30 a.m. through 11:00 a.m. In addition, please note the following:

- You will be provided specific video conference information one day prior to the argument date;
- The time allotted for oral argument is limited to 15 minutes to be shared by the plaintiffs and 15 minutes for the defendants.

If you are an attorney who will present argument in this case, download the Argument Acknowledgment form from the website and file it electronically with the Clerk's office by close-of-business on Tuesday, April 5, 2022.

Counsel is strongly discouraged from seeking continuances of oral argument as they are granted only in exceptional circumstances. If counsel is seeking a continuance or waiver of oral argument, a motion should be filed as soon as possible. Please note that the filing of a motion for a continuance or to waive argument does not guarantee a ruling prior to the scheduled argument.

Sincerely yours,

s/Lance A. Gifford
